UVA Presents: Being Human

Saturday, June 29th - Saturday, August 3rd 2024
Unbound Visual Arts - Arthaus Gallery
43 North Beacon Street, Allston, MA 02134

Allston – Unbound Visual Arts is pleased to partner with the National Association of Women Artists to present Being Human, an exhibit curated by Jennifer Jean Okumura, Art World Professional and Dave Santulli, Founder and President of United Planet. In this exhibit, the featured artists have responded to the idea of being human during a time lacking humanity:

Being Human should be obvious - no need to discriminate or constantly hate - a need to say humanity is not lost; our habitat condition can be changed, and we can recover and be reborn if love is not over. Learn once again to be human. In this show, every mark we make was created by one hand – our hand – and the finished product will live and breathe as part of a world in which we all are tenants and share.

The exhibit includes 30 artists, many of whom are from the Boston area: Kim Alemian, Joan Appel, Dot Bergen, Heather Buechler, Susan Chamberland, Lee Collilouri, Gwen Cory, Mary Davidson, Cheryl Dyment, Jocelyn Elizabeth, Giti Ganjei, Mary Gillis, Lisa Goren, Linda Pearlman Karlsberg, Yvonne Lamothe, Jill Law, Avrel Menkes, Linda Morgenstern, Jaye Alison Moscariello, Lisa Murphy, Erin Palazzolo Loparo, Dorothy Pilla, Julia Purdy, Ruth Rieffanaugh, Lully Schwartz, Stacy Shorr, Erin Starr, Niamh Utaigh, Mary B. Vannucci, and Carolyn Wirth.

Being Human will be on display from Saturday, June 29th - Saturday, August 3rd 2024 at UVA's Arthaus Gallery. The free public opening reception for the exhibit will be held on Saturday, June 29th at 6:30pm.

Unbound Visual Arts (UVA) is a unique 501(c)(3) non-profit organization of artists and art enthusiasts based in Allston-Brighton and serving Greater Boston.
